DESCRIPTION

This location was first mentioned in 1141 and belongs to „Stift Heiligenkreuz“. It reaches from Thallern to Gumpoldskirchen at about 250 m above sea. The hillside looks to the west, the ground consists of shell limestone and loamy sand and is profound. Old grapevine and a perfect location mark this wine. This Riesling is classical for this sort. Fine smell of stonefruit, harmonic sweetness with a racy acidity and an elegant fruity finish.
